THE POETRY...

I am a REVOLUTIONARY romantic; I am the WRITING on the wall; I am rhyming Poetry; I am brushstrokes on a single LINE and a lone WORD on the page; I am as raw as HESSIAN and as soft as silk; I am all things feminine with a hint of the DEBONAIR; I am as cool as velvet Nobility; I have a VINTAGE soul but a modern spirit; I am an ELEGY for all things at all times; I am an ALLEGORY for freedom. I am WOMAN.

Welcome to Another Archive AW 'Unexpected Poetry' Women's Collection.

The lovely song might may song lines stunes wentone and farwell my heart was beating the rosebud on the near the violet beautiful The artist's evening song on love new hope To bringa Holdo his heart so long farewell ~~Now I leave this little hut where my beloved there~~ Walks no more with red stars through the leaves

The lovely song might may some lines shines Western and farwell my heart was beating
The rosebush on the near the violet beautiful

The lovely song night may song lines stories Welcome and farewell my heart was beating
The rosebud on the meadow the most beautiful
The artist's evening song in love new hope To bring a whole life must see some farewell Now I leave this little but where my beloved here

*Luna shines through hush and oak zephyr permeate
And the birch trees howling low shed incense on the trade How beautiful the coolness of this lovely summer night!
How the soil fills with happiness in this true place of quiet!
I can scarcely grasp the bliss, yet Heaven, I would shun A thousand nights like this if my darling granted one* no more with the melted steps through the leaves ~~shines through the sun and oak leaves~~ the birch trees howling low shed incense on the track beautiful the coolness of this lovely summer night the air fills with happiness in this true place of quiet
